

Sunday Morning Coffee & Donuts Promotions/Sales

Those who come to the Lower Lounge between the Sunday morning Masses enjoy coffee, donuts, juice and other tasty items. It is a time for parishioners and visitors to relax, chat with friends, and make new friends. But coffee & donuts time in the lower lounge can have a “fish bowl” effect for sales and promotion.

To help people attending coffee and donuts enjoy this time, uninterrupted, we ask the following:

1. Parish related sales are discouraged during coffee & donut time.
2. If there is a parish related sale, a table may be set-up in the hallway outside the lounge or off to the side in the lower lounge.
3. Refrain from going from table-to-table to promote non-church events. Use table tents, table flyers or Lower Lounge bulletin boards to do the work for you.
4. Non-parish sales are also discouraged, unless they have received permission from the parish office.
